NOVEMBER 6, 2022 ~THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Lion's Roar

Dear friends,

The Prayer of St. Gertrude, below, is one of the most famous of the prayers for souls in purgatory. St. Gertrude the Great was a Benedictine nun and mystic who lived in the 13th century. According to tradition, our Lord promised her that 1000 souls would be released from purgatory each time it is said devoutly.

Eternal Father, I offer Thee the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the masses said throughout the world today, for all the holy souls in purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal church, those in my own home and within my family. Amen.

Peace,
Fr. Ariel A. Valencia

Queridos amigos,

Este martes, primero de noviembre, honramos a los santos, todos los hombres y las mujeres que nos han precedido en la fe y que creemos que están eternamente en compañía del Señor.

El miércoles, segundo de noviembre, nos reunimos para recordar a todos los que han muerto, particularmente nuestros seres queridos, a quienes extrañamos, cuya memoria honramos y cuyas vidas valoramos.

Estas celebraciones nos recuerdan del fin de la vida y la meta de nuestro gran deseo: estar con Dios y todos los que le han escogido.

Paz,
Padre Ariel A. Valencia

Reflecting on the Word

The Sadducee were question in Jesus because what Jesus thought about the resurrection and life after death was not what they believed. So, what Jesus teaching about life after death? When Jesus died and then rose from the dead he did not just come back to life, he was transformed! How friends did not recognize him at first. He was Jesus, but somehow a more glorified version of himself. In this he is showing us what life after death will be like for those who follow him. God "is not God" of the dead, but of the living." Like Jesus at Easter, we too are fully alive in him, now and forever.

Living the Word

This week Read John 20:19-23. Discuss as a family how Jesus is different from before he died.

Reflexion de la Palabra

Los Saduceos cuestionaron a Jesus por lo que enseñaba sobre la resurreccion y la vida despues de la muerte, pues era lo que ellos creian. ¿Que enseñaba Jesus sobre la vida despues de la muerte? Cuando Jesus murio y resucito de entre los muertos, no solo volvio a la vida, ¡fue transformado! Sus propios amigos no lo reconocieron al principio. Era Jesús, pero una version mas gloriosa de si mismo. Esto nos muestra como sera la vida despues de la muerte para quienes lo sigan. Dios "no es Dios de muertos, sino de vivos". Como Jesus en la Pascua, estamos pelenamente vivos en el, ahora y para siempre.

Vivir la palabra

Esta semana, lean Juan 20:19-23. Hablen en familia en que se diferencia Jesus de antes de morir.

On November 8th we will be voting. Please visit FaithfulCitizenship.org from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops for reflection on voting as a Catholic. We vote because we are citizens. But we vote conscientiously because we are people of faith. Our consciences are formed through studying scripture and the teachings of the Church, examination of the facts, and prayerful reflection.

While there are many moral issues before us, every issue is not equal.

- * Issues that directly affect human lives—such as abortion and euthanasia— are fundamental and demand serious consideration
- * Our Constitution heralds religious liberty in the First Amendment, yet increasingly people of faith are having to fight to retain this basic right.
- * There is a move in the nation to redefine marriage. The marriage of a man and a woman is the foundation of the family and an essential core element of a flourishing society.
- * The growing disparity between rich and poor means most of the world's resources are in the hands of a small percentage of its people. The federal budget is a moral document and must prioritize the poorest and most vulnerable among us.
- * The millions of undocumented persons living in the United States deserve our compassion. There is an immigration problem, and we need a humane solution to it.
- * War, terror, and violence have caused thousands of lost lives. We must work for just solutions to conflict in the Holy Land, throughout the Middle East, and beyond.

As Catholics citizens, we should remember three things:

Respect for the dignity of each person is the core of Catholic social and moral teaching.
This is our most basic principle.

We focus on the common good, not our own personal interest. We ask, how can we make the world a better place? Not, how can I improve my own personal situation?

We have a responsibility— a true obligation—to form our consciences and participate in the civic life of this nation.

Here are some ways to do that. Be true to the teachings of the Church, Stay well-informed about issues, contact with our representatives, Engage in reasoned, compassionate, and loving dialogue, what it means to be a Catholic in the US.
